Prayer for the week

God of hope, we come before you in our brokenness and need of healing. Through your mercy and grace, we seek your forgiveness for what we have done or failed to do. Give us the courage to learn from past events, and through your Spirit give us hope to look forward to life with you and through you so that we may overcome the darkness and suffering surrounding us and proclaim your love. In Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Fantastic, Fundraising, Family Quiz

Saturday 7th December, 2-3.30pm at Cambourne Church.

This event is aimed at primary school aged children and their families, with activities and challenges for all ages. We're aiming for teams of 6-8 people, each team must include under 12 year olds. There is a recommended donation of £5 per team. The money raised will help us support Thomas – a 12 year old boy living in Kenya, who our children and young people sponsor through Compassion UK. If you'd like to come along please contact Clare with the number of adults and children in your team.

Church Garden – advance notices

1. Thanks to all the hard work of our gardeners, the Church has been recognised as taking Climate Action, and invited by SCDC to have a stall at the Climate Action Fair Tuesday 19th November 5-8pm in The Hub. This is a chance to show the year's photos and to encourage more community involvement, especially for Hedge Day! Do please drop in and be part of the event.
2. Saturday 23rd November - our 420 saplings for the wildlife hedge have arrived and are ready to plant. From 9am please come, if possible equipped with a sharp spade or trowel, gloves, a 2 litre plastic bottle to protect your sapling, and a hot drink.

Serving refreshments at the Joint Service at Comberton Leisure on 24th November
Every year there is a service when churches West of Cambridge come together to worship at Comberton Leisure. This year, Cambourne Church is responsible for the serving of refreshments.
