Newcomers welcome tea

Are you relatively new to Cambourne Church? We would love to get to know you a little bit more and to welcome you. You're warmly invited to our drop in Welcome Tea on Sunday 28th September, 4.00-5.30pm, in the Church Annex. Come along for a relaxed afternoon where you can enjoy tea and cake, meet other newcomers, and find out more about our community and life at Cambourne Church. Children are very welcome! There will be activities for them. We'd love to meet the whole family!

Please do let us know by Thursday 25th September if you'd like to come by contacting the office (office@cambournechurch.org.uk) and let us know of any specific dietary requirements.

Jubilee Garden

If you have spare seeds, or are dividing perennial plants, there will be a Big Plant Swap on 18th October garden day. Over the coming months we are aiming to clear the paths of weeds before Remembrance and to prepare the hedge lines for replacement of the casualties of the drought. The Woodland Trust has approved our application for 200 new plug plants. We continue to work with the Wildlife Trust towards the Churchyard Conservation Award bronze level. It is a blessing to see what we have achieved with God's help in 18 months.

19 - the coffee house

The coffee house will reopen on Tuesday 2nd September.

Job Vacancy

The advert has now come out for our new Ministry Team Leader for Children and Young People. We do encourage you to hold the process for finding Clare's replacement in prayer. Please share the webpage (cambournechurch.org.uk/vacancies) and social media posts with anyone you think may be interested in the role.
